

RETURN TO WORK PROGRAM

DC Office of Risk Management

DC Public Sector Workers' Compensation Program

“Returning employees back to work in a safe and productive environment.”

The District Government Office of Risk Management established the Return to Work (RTW) Program for their most valuable resources – District government employees. The primary goal of the RTW Program is to return eligible employees to the workforce at the earliest medically allowable date and in a safe and productive environment. The RTW Program promotes rehabilitation and enhances the recovery process of employees experiencing an injury.
